

Murray Max Coaches Code

Each coach shall understand the mission statement, philosophy, organization, governance, by-laws, rules and regulations of the Murray Max Soccer Club and abide by the same. They shall be committed to the development of the players, in terms of soccer skills and also, and even more importantly, in the furthering of their education and their abilities to be prepared for life.

Each coach's "code of conduct" shall be to:

1. Responsibly conduct all team business and affairs according to Murray Max Soccer Club and Utah Youth Soccer Association rules and regulations. (See Section on Team Organization.)
2. Refrain from smoking or drinking on practice or playing fields or in front of players.
3. Never use drugs or any controlled substance. (Violation of this rule will result in immediate suspension and, upon verification of the violation, immediate and permanent dismissal.)
4. Use appropriate language at all times.
 - A. No profanity and no vulgarity.
 - B. No abusive language with players, other coaches, parents or officials.
 - C. No degrading or humiliating comments or behavior towards any player.
 - D. "Yell" instructions and directions only--no negative comments on any playing or practice field.
5. No physical or verbal abuse of referees.
6. Develop reasonable schedules and maintain them.
7. Always be honest with players and parents.
8. Uphold & Implement the by-laws of the Murray Max Soccer Club.
9. Always have at least one other adult at all practices, games and club/team sponsored events. (2 adults present at all times.)
10. Permit parents to listen to team discussions at all times (games, practices etc.)

Violation of this code of conduct by any coach will be subject to action recommended and approved by the Board of Directors.

As a Murray Max Coach, I commit to uphold the above listed requirements for Murray Max Coaches.
